Today's Key:

GENEROSITY IS THE UNSELFISHNESS OF LIFE

Many think the opposite of love is hate, but I believe the opposite of love is selfishness. Proverbs 6:16 lists seven things God hates. God hates sin and what it does to His children, but you will never find a reference where God was or is selfish. The heavenly Father is a giver. John 3:16 declares it! Generosity cannot be measured by the size of the gift, because the amount is relative to both what we have to give and our frame of reference. True generosity is defined by the degree of sacrifice.

Fulfillment is not attained or achieved by how much we receive and retain. We were designed to be receivers for the purpose of giving. The greatest sense of fulfillment comes to those who unselfishly, lavishly bless the world around them, and generously give to those who deserve it and to those who do not.

Proverbs 22:9 (NLT)

"Blessed are those who are generous."
