LEGACY IS THE LEGEND OF LIFE

Hezekiah was the son of a wicked king. When he inherited the throne, he dismantled the idols and pagan worship, and reinstated God's ways. When the prophet told him he was going to die in three days, he asked God for an extension, in order to complete his assignment. He lived fifteen more years and is remembered for his mission accomplished! Long life is not measured in the longevity of years, but in the legacy left behind.

Dr. M. Dana Gammill

A legend tells the story of the legacy you will leave for the generations to come. There are five ways to leave a legacy: your words, your works, your wealth, your offspring and your disciples. Your words will outlive you. What you do, what you sow, and what you give will follow you. If you want long life, ask for it for a reason. How will you be remembered?

Proverbs 3:1, 2

"My son forget not My law; let thy heart keep My commandments: for length of days and long life, and peace, shall they add to you."
